Thirty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Jesus observed how the crowd
put money into the treasury.
Many rich people put in large sums.
A poor widow also came and put in two small coins
worth a few cents.

FEAST OF FAITH

Prayer after Communion

The rites following the reception of Communion are very short. It is as if the Church is saying to us that the only way to respond to this great gift is to go forth and live it! But there are some significant rites yet before we are sent forth from the Mass. After Communion, we pray together in silence or sing a hymn; both are ways to thank God for the gift of the Son. Then the priest prays another collect, the Prayer after Communion. This prayer, usually very short, gathers our prayers into one. It reminds us of what we have already experienced: in receiving the Eucharist, we have received a foretaste of the heavenly banquet; we have eaten the bread of angels. This reality, this knowledge, should transform us, so that we may journey through this life with our hearts set on eternal life, and find in the Eucharist—which is food from heaven and daily bread—the strength and hope we need to work toward God’s kingdom of justice here and now. —Corinna Laughlin, Copyright © J. Since we turned back the clock, what will you do with your extra hour?

Help Wanted! RE 21-22

We still need some substitutes to help us at all sessions. Substitutes do need to meet Safe Environment requirements including the State required Mandated Reporter Training, and Diocesan required PGC. Both classes can be done online. All materials for classes are written out so substitutes simply follow the plan. Please prayerfully consider being part of our team.

All Saints 2021

Thanks to all the students who taught us about their favorite Saint!

Questions of the Week:

Question for Children: What part of your own possessions are you called on to share?

Question for Youth: When you think of your own life, do you consider yourself to be rich or poor? How do you spend your money? Is there anything you should be doing differently?

Question for Adults: When do you know that you have given away enough?

Activities of the Week

For one week, keep track of some of the many appeals for charity you witness, either in the mail or on the television. Discuss with your family: Which appeals seem especially worthy? How much money can we contribute to charity this week? Should some of that money be sent to one of the appeals? What sacrifices will the family need to make in order to be able to contribute to a chosen charity?

Prayer Note

National Vocation Awareness Week will be celebrated in our country November 7-13, 2021. Please ask Our Lord for more dedicated, holy priests, deacons and consecrated men and women. May they be inspired by Jesus Christ, supported by our faith community, and respond generously to God's gift of a vocation.

Please remember to pray for these holy men and women often.

We will be holding our Holiday Food Drive for Thanksgiving on Sunday November 21 but because of Covid-19 we will not be accepting food donations. We welcome any monetary donation that we then will pass on to people in need to supplement their food. You could give cash, check or gift cards. Please put any donations in an envelope & mark the outside with "Holiday Food Drive Donation" & your name then place it in the collection basket or in the box in the back of the church. You will get credit for any donation you make. If you pay by check please put "Holiday Food Drive" on the memo line. There will be envelopes for you to use in the back of church if needed. If possible, try to make your donation by November 14.

Thank You,
 Paul Gangi - Holiday Food Drive Chairperson
